

"LISTEN-UP PEOPLE" WORKSHOP!

Communication Skills – Active Listening Made Fun!

"A Life Skill for Business Success"

Do you ever daydream when you think a speaker has nothing interesting to say?

Do you interrupt while someone is making a point?

Do you anticipate what the person will say next?

(If YOU answered YES to the above 3 queries, YOU need to work on your listening skills!)

Leslie Waters provides a fast-moving one-hour workshop ($250) on:

*How to build an awareness of the importance of good listening skills

*How to enhance management and co-worker communication

*How to become a better listener in order to influence, persuade, negotiate, market, sell, learn, understand, obtain information, and avoid conflict and misunderstanding with clients and customers.

*How to impact the bottom-line of your business!

Leslie Waters, Vice Mayor of Seminole, former State Legislator, and current Adjunct Instructor at USFSP has presented this training in the local area as well on international assignments. Whether you are in business or the business of politics...everyone can improve on their listening skills!
